10. RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee should fulfill the following responsibilities as appropriate for the Company (and its subsidiaries and associates, and the Group as a whole). The Committee shall:

10.1 determine and agree with the Board of Directors the framework or broad policy for the remuneration of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chairman, President, Executive Directors, the Company Secretary and such other members of the Executive Management as it is designated to consider, which, for the avoidance of doubt, will include any director or employee who receives a salary in excess of TRY 1,000,000.- per annum. The remuneration of Non-Executive Directors shall be a matter for the Chairman and the Executive members of the Board, of Directors and shall be approved by the members at the Annual General Meeting. No director or manager shall be involved in any decisions as to their own remuneration;

10.2 in determining such policy, consider all factors which it deems necessary. The objective of such policy shall be to ensure that members of the executive management of the company are provided with appropriate incentives to encourage enhanced performance and are, in a fair and responsible manner, rewarded for their individual contributions to the success of the Company;

10.3 review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the Remuneration Policy;

10.4 approve the design of, and determine targets for, any performance related pay schemes operated by the company and approve the total annual payments made under such Schemes;

10.5 review the design of all share incentive plans for approval by the Board of Directors and shareholders. For any such plans, determine each year whether awards will be made, and if so, the overall amount of such awards, the individual awards to executive directors and other senior executives and the performance targets to be used;

10.6 review the design of all pension arrangements for approval by the Board of Directors, including the policy, and scope of, any such pension arrangements prior to their implementation by the Company;

10.7 ensure that contractual terms on termination, and any payments made, are fair to the individual, and the Company, that failure is not rewarded and that the duty to mitigate loss is fully recognized;

10.8 approve any "Golden Parachute" benefits payable to the Chief Executive Officer or its Executive Directors, the Company Secretary, and such other members of the Executive Management as it is designated to consider in the event that the company is acquired, and such executive's employment is terminated. These benefits can take the form of severance pay, a bonus, stock options, or a combination thereof.

10.9 within the terms of the agreed policy and in consultation with the Chairman and/or Chief Executive Officer as appropriate, determine the total individual remuneration package of each Executive Director and other senior executives including bonuses, incentive payments and share options or other share awards;

10.10 in determining such packages and arrangements, give due regard to any relevant legal requirements, the provisions and recommendations in the SPK and BİST rules and associated guidance;

10.11 review and note annually the remuneration trends across the Company;

10.12 oversee any major changes in employee benefits structures throughout the Company;

10.13 agree the policy for authorizing claims for expenses from the Chief Executive Officer and Chairman;
and

10.14 be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing, and setting the Working Principles and Procedures for any remuneration consultants who advise the Committee, and to obtain reliable, up-to-date information about remuneration in other companies. The Committee shall have full authority to commission any reports or surveys which it deems necessary to help it fulfill its obligations.

11. NOMINATION RESPONSIBILITY

The Committee shall:

11.1 regularly review the structure, size and composition (including the skills, knowledge and experience) required of the Board of Directors compared to its current position and make recommendations to the Board of Directors with regard to any changes;

11.2 give full consideration to succession planning for directors and other senior executives in the course of its work, taking into account the challenges and opportunities facing the company, and what skills and expertise are therefore needed on the Board in the future;

11.3 be responsible for identifying and nominating for the approval of the Board, candidates to fill Board vacancies as and when they arise;

11.4 before any appointment is made by the Board, evaluate the balance of skills, knowledge and experience on the Board of Directors, and, in the light of this evaluation prepare a description of the role and capabilities required for a particular appointment. In identifying suitable candidates the Committee shall:

- (i) use open advertising or the services of external advisers to facilitate the search;
- (ii) consider candidates from a wide range of backgrounds; and
- (iii) consider candidates on merit and against objective criteria, taking care that appointees have enough time available to devote to the position;

- 11.5 keep under review the leadership needs of the organization, both executive and non-executive, with a view to ensuring the continued ability of the organization to compete effectively in the marketplace;
- 11.6 keep up to date and fully informed about strategic issues and commercial changes affecting the Company and the market in which it operates;
- 11.7 review annually the time required from Non-Executive Directors. Performance evaluation should be used to assess whether the non-executive directors are spending enough time to fulfill their duties; and
- 11.8 ensure that on appointment to the Board of Directors, Non-Executive Directors receive a formal letter of appointment.
- 11.9 The Committee shall also make recommendations to the Board of Directors concerning:
- 11.9.1 formulating plans for succession for both executive and non-executive directors and in particular for the key roles of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer;
- 11.9.2 suitable candidates for the role of independent directors;
- 11.9.3 membership of the Audit Committee and Nomination & Remuneration Committee, in consultation with the Presidents of those Committees;
- 11.9.4 the re-appointment of any non-executive director at the conclusion of their specified term of office having given due regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute to the Board in the light of the knowledge, skills and experience required;
- 11.9.5 the continuation (or not) in service of any director who has reached the age of 65;
- 11.9.6 any matters relating to the continuation in office of any director at any time including the suspension or termination of service of an executive director as an employee of the company subject to the provisions of the law and their service contract; and
- 11.9.7 the appointment of any director to executive or other office other than to the positions of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, the recommendation for which would be considered at a meeting of the full Board of Directors.

The Committee notifies the Board of Directors in writing of its assessments and recommendations on the above-mentioned issues.

12. REPORTING RESPONSIBILITY

12.1 The Committee President shall report formally to the Board of Directors on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities.

12.2 The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board of Directors it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.

12.3 The Committee shall produce an annual report of the Company's remuneration policy and practices which will form part of the Company's Annual Report and ensure each year that it is put to shareholders for approval at the AGM.

The Committee notifies the Board of Directors in writing of its assessments and recommendations on the above-mentioned issues.

13. OTHER MATTERS

The Committee shall also:

- (i) have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the Company secretariat for assistance as required;
- (ii) be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction program for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members;
- (iii) give due consideration to laws and regulations and the requirements of the national (TCC, CMB, BIST) and international (WBG, OECD, EU, EBRD) rules as appropriate;
- (iv) oversee any investigation of activities which are within its Working Principles and Procedures; and
- (v) at least once a year, review its own performance, constitution and Working Principles and Procedures to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

The Committee notifies the Board of Directors in writing of its assessments and recommendations on the above-mentioned issues.

14. AUTHORITY

The powers that the Committee may exercise when necessary are as follows:

- 14.1 To seek any information it requires from any personnel of the Company in order to perform its duties;
- 14.2 to call any employee to be questioned at a meeting of the Committee as and when required.
- 14.3 When necessary, to obtain independent expert opinions on matters deemed necessary in relation to the Committee's activities.

15. AMENDMENT
